

Social and Personal

Quite a number of people who went South earlier in the winter have recently returned to Virginia. Miss Letitia Woodward and Miss Nancy Lee Janney, of Leesburg, who accompanied Miss Woodward's father, W. Minor Woodward, on a trip to Bermuda and Panama, returned to New York last week. Miss Janney has gone to her home in Leesburg, and Mr. Woodward and his daughter are now at their apartment at the Chesterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfax, of Loudoun county, have returned to Virginia, after a stay of several weeks in Florida as the guests of Senator Don Cameron. Mrs. Fairfax is visiting relatives in Richmond, and Mr. Fairfax has gone to "The Oaks," his estate near Leesburg.

Miss Maupin's Wedding. A brilliant company of guests will fill Trinity Episcopal Church in Portsmouth this evening at 6 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Mary St. John Maupin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maupin, and James Lewis Hutton Nash. The bride is a great-grand-niece of President Madison, his sister, her mother, Mrs. Maupin, is a daughter of the late President's mother.

The Maupins belong to one of the oldest and most aristocratic families in the South. They have been equally prominent and well known in Virginia. Mr. Nash is the son of Edgar Nash, of Portsmouth, and his family is also a very distinguished one in this State.

The church will be banked with white and pink flowers and lighted candles will be used on the altar. The wedding march will be played at the entrance of the bride and her attendants, and the Rev. J. C. Cornick, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. A. C. Thompson, rector of the church, will perform the ceremony.

The bride will enter the church with her uncle, Dr. G. W. O. Maupin, who will give her away. Her wedding dress is fashioned of duchess satin and trimmed with rose point lace. The bride's bouquet will be arranged with a variety of orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. Miss Rosalie Langhorne, who will be maid of honor, will wear a gown of yellow velvet, trimmed in silver lace and rhinestones. She will carry a shower bouquet of Parma violets.

Mr. Richard Andrews Jones, who will be the best man, will wear a tuxedo and will carry a silver pencil and silver slipper. The groomsmen will be Frank Dewey, Thomas Nash and Beverly Jones, and the ushers will include A. Augustus Maupin and Miss Mary Hope. The bridesmaids will be Misses White, William Langhorne, Jack Nash and Fitzhugh Lee Huggins. The bride's gifts to her maid and maid of honor are silver pencils and silver slipper.

The bride and groom will be married at 6 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. J. C. Cornick, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. A. C. Thompson, rector of the church, who will perform the ceremony.

FIRE AT NORTON. Confined to One Building, but Threatened Wholesale District.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norton, Va., February 27.—Norton had another fire last night, the fourth within the past ten days. The fire broke out in a two-story building adjoining the Norton Grocery Company, on Park Avenue, and was occupied as a bowling alley. The building was gutted by the flames, but owing to the prompt work of the fire department the walls were saved and the flames kept from spreading. For a time the entire wholesale district was threatened. The building was owned by Stephen Crite, with insurance amounting to $12,000. W. M. Lawson conducted the bowling alley, and carried $700 insurance.

FIRE AT NORTON. Confined to One Building, but Threatened Wholesale District.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norton, Va., February 27.—Norton had another fire last night, the fourth within the past ten days. The fire broke out in a two-story building adjoining the Norton Grocery Company, on Park Avenue, and was occupied as a bowling alley. The building was gutted by the flames, but owing to the prompt work of the fire department the walls were saved and the flames kept from spreading. For a time the entire wholesale district was threatened. The building was owned by Stephen Crite, with insurance amounting to $12,000. W. M. Lawson conducted the bowling alley, and carried $700 insurance.
